A Reader Corrects Some Mistakes in the Advocate.

I see in the Kentucky Advocate of recent date, "What a Young Boy Remembers About the War," in which I differ very much. In the first place Rosecrans was not at the battle of Perryville. Buell was in command of the Federals with Thomas second and Crittenden and McCook next. Bragg was in command of the Confederate forces with Kirby Smith, Hardee and Polk, as his corps commanders. Hardee's corps, with Buckner and Cheatham's divisions did the fighting.

Morgan's men were not discharged until Lee had turned his sword over to Grant, and Johnson had surrendered to Sherman. The last body of Confederates under arms was a remnant of Morgan's old command, under Basil Duke, which was discharged below Washington, Ga. Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, Col. Napier and others afterwards well-known, were there. The writer also remembers something about the Guerrillas, as he was the first one to reach Mr. Frank Beazley when he was killed in the old Dix River bridge on the Lancaster pike. Mr. John Logan coming up a few minutes after his arrival. Beazley was a fine man a great friend of my father, and also of Col. Napier. Mr. Beazley was killed by a man named Ferguson, a desperado. A man's life was worth but little in those days.

The first real battle in Kentucky was at Mill Springs, although a hot skirmish was had at Wild Cat, where the Confederates met defeat. Morgan made his first raid in Kentucky in the Spring of 1862, coming in at Glasgow and capturing Lebanon and Harrodsburg and driving 7,000 men into Lexington, then took Cynthia, Winchester and Richmond, taking the Lancaster road there and passing through Crab Orchard and on to Somerset, where he crossed the Cumberland river and sent a dispatch to George D. Prentice telling him he would call on him personally the next time he came to Kentucky.

EDITOR F. J. CAMPBELL, of the Somerset Journal, one of the brightest and best newspaper men in the State, is dead. He had been in declining health for many months but refused to give up and up to the very last he wrote for his excellent paper. The end came Tuesday evening and the sad news was flashed over the wires to his legion of friends and admirers. Mr. Campbell was 65 years old and is survived by his wife and two children, Mrs. R. D. Norwood, of Lexington, and Claire Campbell, of Seattle, Wash. To them we extend our profound sympathy. In the death of this splendid gentleman the family and more intimate friends are not the only losers, but the press of Kentucky and every good citizen in the State shares in the loss, for he was as true a friend as ever lived, a stickler for the right at all times and a journalist who towered like Saul of Tarsus over the rest of the country press. We sorrow at his death and pray for him the sweet rest and rich reward that is promised the good and true. May the soil lie gently on the mound that marks the spot where he sleeps the sleep that knows no waking.

Mr. Campbell was the founder of the INTERIOR JOURNAL and a good portion of his life had been spent in newspaper work. He was also proprietor of Rock Castle Springs for a number of years and later became a merchant of Somerset. In 1900 he bought the Somerset Journal and at once converted it into a semi-weekly and made it one of the best and best known publications in the State. Deceased was born in this county and served with distinction throughout the civil war. He absolutely declined a pension, saying time and again that he was able to make his own living.

POLITICAL.

J. Peter Holland is running for Congress in the Second Virginia district on a platform demanding tariff on peanuts. Dr. W. R. Ray, of Shelby, has entered the race for the democratic nomination for State Senator. Judge P. B. Beard is also a candidate.

Leslie Combs, who was Minister to Guatemala in 1904, said that he had never heard of President Cabrera's contribution of $10,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund and did not believe it was ever made.

A delegation headed by the president of the Nebraska Agricultural Society called on Mr. Bryan and extended a formal invitation to him to make an address at the State Fair, which begins in Lincoln Aug. 31. Mr. Bryan promised to be present if possible.

William H. Taft was given a warm reception on the occasion of the opening of circuit court and the dedication of the new courthouse of Bath county, Virginia, at Germantown. The occasion called for their homes many mountaineers, who traveled long distances to see the republican nominee for president. Judge Taft spoke to them on the administration of justice by the courts.

Mr. Miller was 76 years of age and had lived more than half these years in this town. He united with the Baptist church here some 40 years ago and was quite an active member of that church. Rev. W. Stop That Cold

To check early colds or grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the mease stage—they break, or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child. If there is feverishness, night or day. Herein probably lies Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 1c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 4 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY, of Stanford, has been appointed special judge of the Magoffin circuit court and will leave Monday to begin work. Judge Saufley has probably done more special judgeship work than any lawyer in Kentucky. He made a brilliant reputation when circuit judge of the 13th Judicial District and when he retired was frequently called upon by Gov. Beckham to act as special judge, so general has been the satisfaction among litigants with his rulings. It will be remembered that Gov. Beckham requested Judge Saufley to try Caleb Powers but he declined. Gov. Willson has called him into service several times already.—Frankfort dispatch to Lexington Herald.

KING HOTEL BURNED.—The King Hotel, near the Crab Orchard depot, burned Wednesday night together with nearly all of the contents. The fire is supposed to have caught from the kitchen flue. Mrs. O. P. King, who owned the hotel, was making jam until a late hour and when she discovered the flames the ell of the building was falling in. A guest had to jump from his window to escape burning. The building and furniture were partially covered by insurance.

OUR old friend Ed Walton, chief mogul of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, is chiming the praises of Bryan and Kern in a high pitch. Seems like as well as we can remember, Brer Ed has always been championing lost causes, and we suspect this will not be an exception. Chime on Katy-Did Ed, the October frost will bite you. Mark that. The above is from the pen of the sarcastic editor of the Casey County News, known by his friends as "John Henry" Thomas. "John Henry" has never loved us since we poked fun at him for his defeat in the beauty ring at the Yosemite picnic. He wanted to keep the matter "mum" but the I. J. let its thousands of readers know that handsome "John Henry" had met his Waterloo. Had we known that he was going to take the matter so seriously we would not have let the cat out of the wallet but would have permitted the public to continue in its belief that "John Henry" was the Apollo of Kentucky and the only and original unbeaten beauty in the State of Casey.

HUSTONVILLE.

John Allen and Edd Powell have completed harvesting nearly 300 acres of grass.

Partial rains have diatribed a large section south of here by persistently falling in sight all around.

Carroll Grubbs, just over the Casey border, was suddenly unbalanced last week and consigned to an asylum. His delusion is despair of escape from the lake of fire and brimstone.

Dr. L. R. Powell, who has been treated for several weeks in the hospital at Bloomington, Ill., died on the 14th inst. and was buried at Exello, Mo. He had numerous friends and relations in this county who will be grieved to learn of his death.

Mrs. A. H. Bohon and daughter, Theresa, of Temple, Texas, arrived Wednesday to visit Central Kentucky relatives. Miss Armada Alexander, of Lexington, Miss Mattie Hughes, of Alabama, and Mrs. Wm. Powell, of Danville, are with Mrs. Joe. B. Riffe.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There will be preaching at the Christian church Sunday.

Dr. M. B. Wharton, pastor of the Baptist church of Eufaula, Ala., and former United States consul to Sonneberg, Germany, is dead.

A great meeting will begin at Turnersville next Monday night, July 27. Rev. T. S. Tinsley, of Shelbyville, will conduct it. A list of the subjects he will preach from will appear Tuesday.

Rev. Geo. F. Smith, of Evansville, Ind., evangelist, and R. C. Bird, of Valley Center, Va., singing master, are conducting a series of meetings at Lynnwood school house, about three miles south of Stanford. Services at 9 A. M., and 7:30 P. M. Everybody is invited to attend.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever Coffee Substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

How to Restore A Drowning Man.

Here is a simple and effective way to restore a drowning man:

The man should be stood on his head in order that all the water possible be gotten from his lungs. The old method of rolling him on a barrel is not a bad one for the same purpose.

Then an effort should be made to induce artificial respiration. To this end put the person flat on his back and let some one catch hold of his arms just at the elbow.

Then raise the arms above the head and bring them down.

As they reach the body press in on the ribs to force out the air gained by lifting the arms.

Keep this up at the rate of 18 times a minute.

Then try to get the heart to moving by giving a stimulant like liquor or a hyperdermic injection.

Sometimes a slight fluttering of the heart is sufficient to get back life.

Get a physician as soon as possible.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Plerson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

The ticket nominated by the Democrats at Denver is a winner. The prospects for victory are better than they have been since 1876, when Tilden swept the country by a popular majority of more than 300,000. The nomination of William J. Bryan and John W. Kern were practically by acclamation, and the Democrats are happy.—Jessamine Journal.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it is the best of all medicines; also for weakness, lame back and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c.
